Dear Mr. Reuter,

I've written Bordelon, thanks.

I was not at the conference, did not intend to be, and in fact it has not been safe for me to drive out of Frederick since 1977 and I haven't. They used my name without speaking to me. I do not know who did or why. And they couldn't even spell it.

To the best of my knowledge Selby's "Reasonable Doubt" is still being sold. You stores should have it listed and know where to get it.

If Ivon has a listed phone, please call him and wish him well for me. He was always very helpful and considerate with me, as Bordelon and another detective, Lynn Loisel, also were.

I'd heard of Ivon's political success and defeat. Before then he got a degree in criminalist and became a NOED detective. Good man.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold Weisberg
